FLIER LOSES LIFE IN CRASH

Karl Kritisch Has Neck Broken In 200 Foot Drop.

PLANE WAS SOUND

Machine Tumbles While Over Horse Show Grounds—Makes Several Flights—Shuts Off Switch.

Washington, D. C., July 25.—One person was killed, and another seriously injured, when a passenger airplane operated by the North American Aerial Transportation Co., of this city, fell from an autitude of 200 feet at the National Capital Horse Show grounds, Arlington, Va., shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Karl Kritsch, 29 years old, of 1353 Good Hope Road, southeast, employed as a financial clerk by the District Board of Children Guardians, a passenger in the ill-fated plane, died from the effects of a broken neck while being rushed to Emergency Hospital.

Bertram M. Stewart, 26 years old, of the Manchester Apartments, 1426 M street, northwest, pilot of the plane, is in a serious condition at Emergency Hospital, suffering from probable internal injuries, fractures of both legs, severe lacerations of the face, and probable fractures of the ribs.

The plane, a Canadian-Curtis 80 horsepower craft, was in perfect condition when it took off from the flying field, located a short distance, north of the Horse Show grounds, according to officials of the company

Rising to an altitude of 200 feet, idrectly over the grandstand on the Horse Show grounds, the plane sud denly swerved to the left and began a headlong descent, crashing into a fence which skirts the race track as it struck the ground.

Both occupants of the plane were pinned beneath the mass of twisted debris and witnesses who rushed to the scene of the accident were more than 20 minutes extricating them. They were immediately placed in passing automobiles and rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where Kritsch was pronounced dead.

Many motorists who were traveling on the military road witnessed the fatal plunge of the aircraft, and a short time after the accident a crowd of several hundred persons had gathered.

Kritsch, who has been studying aeronautics, has made numerous flights from the field and was making his second flight with Steward yesterday when the fatal accident occurred.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. H. White, of 1353 Good Hope road soutehast, with whom he resided, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kritsch, of Fairfax Court House, Va. He had been employed by the Board of Children Guardians for the past eleven years and was one of the most popular employes in the service.

tSewart, the pilot, is a native of Colorado, where his mother and sister reside. During the war he served as a flying instructor at several army flying fields, was formerly connected with the Air Mail Service and is credited with more than 2,500 hours in the air.

Small Audience Hear Talk "Millions Now Living Never Die."

Under the auspices of the International Bible Association, G. W. Walters, of Washington, yesterday afternoon delivered an address at the Idle Hour Theater taking for his subject, "Millions Now Living Never Die." The speaker was introduced by W. P. Hall, of Washington. Only about fifty persons attended.

The speaker among other things said that he had nothing new or strange to tell his hearers, adding that if they had come to hear some thing new they would be disappointed. "God, he declared, has a plan for all."

M. P. CHURCH NOTES

The Sunday School of the Methodist Protestant Church continue to hold its attendance doing this hot weather. The girls with a Hudson car are leading the boys in the automobile contest.

The pastor, Rev. Robert Browne, spoke upon the three candidates chosen by God. This was an inspiring sermon. The pastor showing the indifference of man towards taking up the duties of God. Too many excuses when the work of God is to be done.

At the eight o'clock service the pastor spoke upon the subject glorying in the cross. He pictured the way of the cross that leads to heaven and the only way we can expect to enter the pearly gates He calling the names of the many old saints who have gone home and found it by way of the cross.

Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be a meeting of the official board in the lecture room.

Wednesday prayer service at 8 o'clock.

Choir rehearsal Friday at eight o'clock.

TRINKLE GAINING

The Bristol Herald-Courier's sum mary of the situation is as follows:

"The face of the situation has changed, and the reason is not far to seek. Seantor Trinkle is a successful business man who believes in progress, and that is the type of man the people of Virginia want at the head of the State Govxernment. Mr. Tucker is not a successful business man and he is not forward-looking. Hi campaign slogan, "back to the Constitution," holds no promise of progress and does not appeal to the people."

Senatr Trinkle's campaign in the Ninth District resembles a triumphant tour. He is met at every point in the Southwest by the people in large numbers demonstrating their interest in their home candidate. It is daily more evident that his majority in the Ninth District will be larger than his own headquarters has calculated.

The Southwest people, more than any others, know how Senator Trinkle has responded in every campaign since he left school to the call of his party, giving his time, energy, thought and means freely, whenever called upon.

Throughout his campaign Senator Trinkle has repudiated all thought of sectionalism. He will be Governor of the while people and not of any part.

Senator Trinkle has made no pledges with regard to the future or medical or other education in Virginia, except his general statement to do all in his power for its advancement. He has been too busy in his campaign to read either the majority or the minority reports on the consolidation or location of a State medical cllege. He will be either Governor of Virginia or Senator from Wythe County at the next session of the Legislature and will be ready, as always, to consider every problem that arises in that body on its merits.

Women should remember that they may qualify to vote up until the day of the primary. It is assumed that they will vote in force with the exception of those who prefer to go back to that Constitution which gave them no rights of citizenship.

FIREMEN'S OUTING

The Columbia Firemen have sold a large number of tickets for their outing at Marshall Hall tomorrow and a record crowd for the pleasure resort is predicted. Everyone is assured a real time nad don't miss being with the Fire lads on their outing.

OIL FIRE FIGHTERS USE SHIELDS OF ASBESTOS.

Mexico City, July 25.—Guarded by an asbestos shield, fire-fighters were making an attempt today to reach one of the burning oil wells at Amatlan and shut off the valve regulating the flow of oil. If this effort fails, tunneling will be tried in an attempt to check the flames.

Two hundred men are fighting the fires, and oil men believe the flames will have been extinguished within three weeks. All nearby wells hvae been covered with earth as a protection against the conflagration.

PLEA TO U. S. TO AID RUSSIA

Release of Prisoners Made First Proviso In New Message.

MATTER OF HUMANITY

Million Children May Be Added To Millions Now Being Cared For. Conditions Are Outlined.

Washingtn, July 25.—Maxim Gorky, at Petrograd, has been notified by Herbert Hoover, acting as chairman of the Aemrican Relief administration, that the organization is prepared to immediately proceed with food and medicinal relief for omre than a million Russian children if conditions accepted by 23 other countries are agreed to by the existing Russian authorities.

Six months ago the American Relief administration proposed to do this work, subject to the release of American prisoners and some other necessary conditions. But the Russians were obdurate and the negotiations were not concluded. Recently appeals from Russia were formally renewed and last night, Secretary Hoover sent the following cable gram to Maxim Gorky, who had forwarded the latest Russian appeal:

"I have read with great feeling your appeal to Americans for charitable assistance to the starving and sick people of Russia, more particularly the children. To the whole American people the absolute sine qua non of any assistance must be the immediate release of the Americans no wheld prisoners in Russia. Once this step has been taken the American relief administration, a purely voluntary association and an entirely unofficial organization of which I am chairman, together with other co-operating charitable American organizations supported wholly through the generosity of the American people have funds in hand by which assitance for the children and for the sick could be undertaken immediately.

"This organization has previously, in the last year, intimated its willingness to undertake this service as one of simple humanity disengaged absolutley from any political, social or religious motives. However, for obvious administrative reasons it has been and is compelled to stipulate for certain undertakings. Subject to the acceptance of these undertakings we are prepared to enter upon this work. We are today caring for three and one half millions of children in ten different countries

WANDERER TO HANG FRIDAY.

Chicago, July 25.—Carl Wanderer, slayer of his child-wife, and an unidentified stranger, will be hanged Friday. He has lost all his jaunty bearing and his sneering defiance and contempt for the law.

He complains that the bright lights constantly used in "murderers' row" keep him awake and he has lost his appetite. He appears to have lost track of the days and is constantly asking the guards outside his cell what day of the week it is.

Wanderer reads almost constantly, dividing his time between the Bible, books of poetry and the most lurid sex books he can obtain.

William P. Woolls has been reappointed district deputy grand knight of the Knights of Columbus for this jurisdiction.

Misses Mildred and Thelma Lunsford are visiting relatives at Burkes, Va.

NARROW ESCAPE

Eighth In Car of F. Clinton Knight Badly Shaken Up

Eight persons narrowly escaped death or serious injury at 9 o'clock yesterday morning when the new Oldsmobile eight tuoring car belonging to F. Clinton Knight, of the firm of R. E. Knight and Son, was struck by a Ford, at a culvert about four miles south of Fredericksburg and turned turtle. Every passenger in the car was badly shaken, but escaped without serious injury of any kind.

Mr. Knight, together with Mrs. Knight and their three children, two sisters of the owner of the car, Misses Edith and Marion Knight and a brother, Herbert, Jr., were passengers in the car and were on their way to Colonial Beach to spend the day.

As the car driven by Mr. Knight reached a culvert about four miles south of Fredericksburg, a Ford touring car driven by a Mr. Grady, who resides near Fredericksburg, shot out of a cross road and crashed into the side of the big touring car. The car toppled over the edge of the culvert, the wheels catching on the stone wall and preventing it from going to the bottom. The top of the machine was smashed and the running boards and fenders torn off, but the engine was not damaged.

The driver of the Ford it is reported, stated that his horn was broken and that he had a box sitting over the emergency brake and was, tehrefore, unable to sound a warning or to stop his car before crashing into the larger car. The machine was brought back to this city last night under its own power.

WHISKY PLOT HAS MILLIONS

Foreign and U. S. Capital Said To Be Promoting Plan.

ARRESTS EXPECTED

Revenue Men Weaving Web Around Suspicious Crews Sighted at Sea. $50,000 In Liquor Is Stolen.

New York, July 25.—Foreign and domestic capital agregating millions of dollars is supporting a conspiracy to violate the Volstead act by running cargoes of liquor into various ports of the United States in a fleet of sailing vessels of British and American registry, it was charged today by Leroy W. Ross, United States District Attorney, of Brooklyn.

With the seizure yesterday of a sloop attempting to discharge a contraband cargo on the Connecticut shore, and the amplification of the Government's enforcement facilities along the Atlantic Coast, Mr. Ross has been placed in virtual charge of prohibitive operations so far as the port of New York is concerned.

"I have been along the coast and have personally investigated this conspiracy," he said. "Owners of vessels and others engaged in the traffic have labored under the delusion that the penalty if they were caught would not exceed a fine of $250 for violation of the Volstead act.

"Should any of these people be apprehended in my jurisdiction, however, the liquor violation will be of only secondary consideration. I shall charge them under the Federal Conspiracy law, and if convicted they will become liable to sentences of from two to five years in prison.

Atlantic City, July 25.—Government agents said tonight that arrests of liquor smugglers alleged to have operated recently along the New Jersey coast will be made when their investigation is finished. Several persons are under surveilalnce, it was stated.

Elliott Rapp, collector of customs here, declared tonight that a mysterious three-masted schooner is lying off Atlantic City, but that when revenue officers went out to her this afternoon they found she was beyond the three-mile limit. Mr. Rapp also said a large steamer which had been lying off Atlantic City for several days and which was suspected of having a cargo of contraband liquor weighed anchor yesterday and disappeared. He added the ship had

BANK STOCK TAX

Richmond Court Holds City Cannot Charge More Than 30 Cents On $100

Richmond, July 25.—The city of Richmond cannot charge more than 30 cents a hundred dollars tax on bank stock, Judge D. C. Richardson ruled Saturday in the Hustings court. The case was argued a week ago by attorneys for stockholders in the Merchants National Bank.

Attorney Lee R. Page, representing the bank stockholders, moved that interest be paid on the tax illegally collected by the city and held since 1915 This motion was refused by Judge Richardson and Page noted an appeal to the supreme court of appeals.

The city gave notice of appeal from the decision of the court, City Attorney Henry R. Pollard contending that it was the supreme court's intention the combined state and city rate should not exceed the rate levied on other moneyed capital, which was 95 cents in 1915. The banks had offered to pay 60 cents which compromise was refused by the city of Richmond.

Judge Richardson declared that he could not do other than follow the decision of the United States Supree Court handed down in connection with the national banks that 30 cents was the maximum a municipality could tax each hundred dollars of bank stock.

ASK CARNEGIE MEDAL FOR GIRL'S BRAVE ACT.

Atlantic City, July 25.—Friends of Miss Lottie Yates, of 239 North Montpelier avenue, have sent her name to the Carnegie Hero Commission as a result of her action last week in plunging fully clothed into the Thoroughfare and rescuing from drowning Anna Mary Nauman, daughter of a Pittsburgh cottager. A petition asking that she be awarded a life-saving medal is being circulated among residents of Chelsea section, where Miss Yates lives.

The young woman was sitting on the front porch of her home when she heard screams coming from the Thoroughfare. She ran to the bank and saw four-year-old Anna Nauman struggling in the water. Without hesitating she plunged in, reached the child and held her up until assistance arrived.

Amherst.—Friday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, three prisoners escaped from the Amherst county jail and have not yet been apprehended. Winchester.—An explosion that rocked houses and caused the earth to quiver in the northwest section of this city late last night alarmed scores of citizens, many of whom jumped from their beds and ran terriefied into the streets. It was later discovered that a group of youths, said to have been "hard-cidered," had poured blasting powder and dynamite into the holes of a pile of concrete blocks and set it off. The blast, which occurred in the vicinity of Milroys Civil War fort, caused many to fear some old cannon balls had blown up.

POLITICAL POT BOILING

Democratic Primary August 2 To Nominate Candidates.

TRINKLE FAVORITE

Trinkle To Carry City By Substantial Majority—Interest On Increase. Local Fight Also Attracts.

As the time appraoches for the democratic primary for the purpose of nominating a governor, lieutenant governor and other state officers together with local officers, which is to be held August 2, interest in the contest becomes more and more pronounced and the coming primary is just now the principal theme of conversation among the voters.

Chief interest centers in the gubernatorial contest between State Senator E. Lee Trinkle and Harry St. George Tucker.

That Trinkle will carry Alexandria by a substantial majority is a foregone conclusion and he appears to be gaining strength here every day. The Trinkle forces have made an active campaign and the present week will mark the finish of their activities.

Both of the gubernatorial candidates have spoken here and discussed the issues of the campaign and several of the candidates for lieutenant governor have been here looking after the interest of their candidacy Harry St. George Tucker, candidate for governor, was here last night and was the guest of Mr. James R. Caton, and left today for Middleburg, Va., where he will speak.

Aside from the state officers to be nominated there is considerable interest manifested in the local contests for office.

Commonwealths Attorney Howard W. Smith has as his opponent, William S. Snow.

For the new office of civil and police justice there is a triangular fight on hand and the candidates seeking this office are Fred G Duvall, Frank Stuart and Aylett B. Nicol

Another office where there is a three cornered fight is that for clerk of gas. Frederick Eberhadt, incumbent, has as his opponents, Carter H. Smith and Frederick Schneider.

An interesting fight for legislative honors is that between Attorney Charles Henry Smith, of this city, and Capt. E. W. Jordan, of Arlington county, Va. This race up to the early part of last week was a three cornered one, but with the withdrawal of J. W. Collins, left the fight between Messrs Smith and Jordan.

INTERESTING FIGURES

The State Auditor of Public Accounts has published a compilation of assessed value of personal property, tangible and intangible, real estate, money and income in the several counties and cities of the Commonwealth for the year 1920. A study of its pages is interesting and highly instructive. For the benefit of the Gazette's readers, we call attention to some of the figures therein given, pertaining to Alexandria. It seems that we have 183 horses, mules and asses (four-footed) within our corporate limits, assessed at $15,135.00. We have 117 vehicles, animal-drawn, valued at $11.375.00; 593 automobiles, motor trucks, motorcycles and bicycles, valued at $203,260.00 or $342.00 each; 514 watches, valued at $7,491.00; 210 clocks, valued at $1,810.00; 443 pianos and other musical instruments, valued at $31,085.00; household and kitchen furniture, valued at $225,655.00; and a capital of all persons, firms, and corporations employed in a trade or business in Alexandria, of $698,618.00.

According to the report our citizens have money on deposit with banks, other corporations, firms or persons, the sum of $397,728. The total value of income assessed on the income tax books for 1920, was $1,363,336.00, including the tax at 1 per cent. and the tax at 2 per cent.

The value of city lots and buildings in Alexandria, by the re-assessment in 1920, was $8,070,990. Richmond, Norfolk, Roanoke, Portsmouth, Newport News, Lynchburg, Petersburg, and Danville lead Alexandria in the order named in value of real estate, it being the ninth city in Virginia in point of assessed valuation.

The tables and statistics given by Mr. Moore are, as stated, highly instructive and interesting, and should be read by citizens generally, who are interested in the financial administration of their state government. Doubtless a copy can be obtained from the State Auditor of Public Accounts, Mr. C. Lee Moore, at Richmond, by writing for it.

TARIFF IN THE HOUSE.

We note that our Congressman, Hon. R. Walton Moore, took active part in the House Debate on the tariff, especially as it affects the duties on asphalt, cement,, explosives, and other materials entering into the construction and improvement of highways. We print his remarks elsewhere in today's paper.

REPUBLIC OF MEXICO.

St. Francisvlile,
June 17, 1813.

Col. Kemper, who still remains in this village, received letters on Saturday last, dated St. Fernando, capital of Texas. The letters are from Governor Bernardo. . . . . The Governor encloses the terms on which American volunteers are admitted into Mexican service, which are liberal beyond anything I have seen. The pay of a major in Mexico is equal to that of a brigadier general in the service of the U. S. . . . St. Fernando is the former St. Antonia; the name underwent a change when the destroyer of Europe usurped the throne of Spain and the nation proclaimed Ferdinand VII their King. . . . Early in April a detachment of ten Republicans summoned 70 Royalists to surrender, saying they were surrounded by Americans; the affrighted soldiers grounded their arms and were marched to La Bahia. The Royalists have collected a force of about 1,200 and advanced 10 leagues north of the River Grand.

On the 29th of March General Ryan (evidently a gentleman from Cork!) defeated the Royalists in a general action at Suketukus (Zacatecas!). . . . . The laws and government of the state of Texas, a member of the Republic of Mexico are such as to destroy the barbarous and perverse system which existed anterior to the establishment of the Republic (of Mexico).

Three men, three quarts of corn whisky, a fight, the police, a trial today and held for the grand jury tersely tells the story of a Sunday brawl staged early in the night in a house on the north side of Wolfe between Fairfax and Lee streets.

A young white man who recently was given temporary accomodation at the house in question was the man who received the knockblow he being smashed over the bridge of the nose and several stitches were afterward taken at the hospital by Dr. M. D. Delaney. His two companions claimed that he brought four quarts of whiskey to the place and opened a quart and each of his companions took a drink.

The young man they testified became abusive precipitating the quarrel which resulted in the personal encounter.

The young man who received the knockout emphatically denied bringing whisky to the place.

When Police Sergt. Wilkinson and Lunsford arrived at the house they were compelled to search for the hooch and only found three quarts and they arrested all hands and the cout held the young man who it was claimed brought the whisky for the grand jury in $500 bail bond and the two others for the action of the grand jury in $100 bail bond each.

Passed away from earth forever,
Free from all its cares and fears,

For the turf is now her pillow,
And she sleeps among the dead,
While the cypress and the willow passengers from the Arlington field since March 15, during which time several hundred persons have made trips over the city without accident, according to officials of the company last night.

The plane had been carefully examined previous to the fatal flight, according to officials of the company, and was in perfect working condition.

Owing to the fact that a rudder control located in the front of the passenger's pit was jammed to the left after the fall, and the fact that the plant swerved to the left as it made its downward crash, officials of the company express the belief that the passenger had become excited and unconsciously placed his foot on the control, thus throwing it out of the control of the pilot.

That Steward realized the crash was inevitable was evidenced by the fact that the throttle was open and the electric switch had been thrown off, thsu making it impossible for the craft to take fire following the crash.

According to officials of the company and other aviators connected with the field Stewart was one of the most careful and experienced pilots in the servcie.

Feels Like A Boy Back on the Farm

Declares Tanlac Has Made Clean Sweep Of His Twelve Years Suffering.

"After twelve years of suffering I am now in perfect health again, and Tanlac gets all the credit for my recovery," said W. L. Harlow, 45 Belmont Ave., Charlottesville, Va., well known employee of the Chesapeake and Albemarle Railroad Co.

"Soon after I left my country home and came to Charlottesville I commenced having trouble with my stomach, and in a few years I got to the point where I was suffering all the time. I had a continual gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach, and everything I ate left its taste in my mouth for hours. At times even milk or water would upset my stomach, and I got to where I simply dreaded to eat because of the pain I knew it would cause. I thought it was eating irregularly that caused my troubles, but after I was transferred to the shops and was getting my meals on time, my digestion seemed to get worse.

"In my search for relief I think I tried everything sold over a drug counter, but kept getting worse. Finally I threw away all the medicine I had, for I had decided there was nothing to do but grin and bear my misery. But I heard so much about Tanlac that I finally concluded to make one mor eeffort to regain my health, and it's put me in shape to where I feel just as well in every way as I did when a boy back on the farm. I wouldn't take anything on earth for the good Tanlac has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and leading druggists everywhere.

The administrative conditions that we are obliged to make are identically the same as those that have been established in every one of the 23 countries where operations have been conducted, one time or another, in care of upwards of eight million children.

"The conditions are that Moscow Soviet authorities should give a direct statement to the relief administration representatives in Riga; (a) that there is need of nor assistance; (b) that Aemrican representatives of the relief administration shall be given full liberty to come and go and move about Russia; (c) that these members shall be allowed to organize the necessary local committees and local assistance free from governmental interference; (d) that they shall be given free transportation of imported supplies with priority over other traffic;; that the authorities shall assign necessary buildings and equipment and fuel free of charge; (e) that in addition to the imported food, clothing and medicines the children and the sick must be given the same rations of such local supplies as are given to the rest of the population; (f) that the relief administration must have the assurance of non interference of the government with the liberty of all its members.

"On its side the relief administration is prepared as usual to make a free and frank undertaking, first, that it will within its resources supply all children and invalids alike without regard to race, creed, or social status. Summer Fabrics Vie with Summer Flowers in Loveliness

THE aisles of our piece-goods department are like garden paths bordered with colors exquisitely delicate or sun-warmed into vivid beauty. Organdies, voiles, dotted swisses, crepes, linens—the sturdy morning and sports variety of fabrics, and the delicate evening blossoms.

To look at them is a delight—to transform them with your own fingers into frocks is happiness. And it's a joy to realize that this Summer, when styles and fabrics are lovelier than ever, our prices are considerably lower than they have been for many Summers past; more than that, they are reinforced with another saving, a brand-new saving, made possible by a wonderful invention that performs three invaluable services to every woman who makes her own clothes—

The DELTOR

A picture guide with every new Butterick Pattern that saves you 50c to $10 on every frock you make

First, in simple-to-understand pictures, it shows you how to lay the pattern you have chosen in your size on every suitable width of material, and in every view. As fast as you can follow the pictures, you pin the pattern to the cloth, and you have used from ¼ to 1⅜ yards less material than you have ever used before, saving 50c to $10 on every frock you make.

And then, you learn how to put your garment together with the skill of an expert. Something more than just a dress grows beneath your fingers. Miraculously you have sewn the charm of Paris—the distinction of a creation into your gown.

And then, the finishing hints of the Deltor—they solve the problem of how to do the last detail professionally. The perplexing questions of finish and adornment are explained to you in simple words—and yet each is the expert's way.

BREACH OF FAITH TO REMOVE MEDICAL SCHOOL DECLARES VIRGINIA HISTORIAN

Charlottesville, July 25.—Dr. Phillip Alexander Bruce, eminent Virginia historian, in a recent protest against the removal of the medical department of the University of Virginia to Richmond, declared that such a step would amount to a breach of faith with the benefactors of the institution who have given large sums of money to endow the medical school, the hospital and other University departments with the tacit understanding that it would be kept intact.

"The University hospital was largely built through the generous gifts of Mr. Charles Steele, of New York," states Dr. Bruce, "who, undoubtedly, was principally actuated in making these gifts by a grateful feeling for his alma mater. Mr. Steele's benefaction was intended for the university just as it now stands on the spot associated with all his memories of the institution. Would it not be a breach of faith on the part of the State practically to destroy all these gifts by transferring the hospital to Richmond?"

"What is true of Mr. Steele's benefaction is rtue of every other that has been bestowed on the university Let the notion get abroad that the principle has been established that any school of the university can upon some plausible pretense be replanted elsewhere, and how many people will be found who would be willing to give large endowments to special scholos?"

Dr. Bruce significantly points out that down to the year 1917 the State had appropriated to the University only $675,000, as against four times that sum, $2,471,000 given by private benefactors, most of whom were alumni. Since 1917 outside donations have been vsalty increased by the Centennial Endowment and other funds. Dr. Bruce concludes that the removal would be certain to cast a damper upon the generosity of future alumni.

PROMISES TO GIVE TO WORLD A SERUM TO CURE BLINDNESS

Neww York, July 25.—A serum, which Dr. Erasmus Arlington Pond, a Brooklyn eye specialist, claims has cured nine cases of blindness caused by atrophy, will soon be demonstrated before the Academy of Medicine and the American Medical Association, it was reported today.

Dr. Pond, who discovered the serum, said the method of cure was to inject the fluid, which nourished the optic nerve. Blindness caused by accident, he said, could not be cured by the serum, nor would it be successful unless there was a slight vision left to the patient. The physician said as soon as he had demonstrated his discovery before the medical profession he would make public the formula, that it might be used generally.

Charlottesville.—Miss Alice McElroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McElroy, of this county, died at the University Hospital last night from injuries received yesterday afternoon at the McElroy home, when she was thrown from her horse. Miss McElroy was showing her grandmother, Mrs. S. R. McElroy, who had just arrived from California, how proficient her favorite mount was in taking the hurdles. Although the jump was one of medium height, the animal topped the top bar sufficiently to toss the rider over its head. Miss McElroy fell on the greensward with such force as to cause concussion of the brain. She was rushed to the University Hospital, where an operation was performed. She died without regaining consciousness.

Winchester.—Fire of suspected incendiary origin late last night destroyed a barn on the farm of D. W. Pugh, near Whitacre, Va., together with some new wheat, hay, an automobile, harness and a lot of chickens. The loss was about $2,000, partly insured.

Fredericksburg.—The body of Private Harry Lee Bowen, formerly of this city, arrived here today from overseas. He went to France shortly after the United States entered the World War and was wounded while on duty at the front, dying shortly afterward. The body will be interred in the National Cemetery here under the auspices of Bowen-Franklin-Knox Post, American Legion.

Lynchburg.—John L. Suttenfield, crack right fielder and hard hitter for the Lynchburg College baseball team, has accepted a call to the pastorate of Fairview Christian Church here. He will return next fall to college to continue his ministerial studies there.

Richmond.—Commissioner of Agriculture Koiner has mailed to the farmers of the state the department's July bulletin. These bulletins go to the homes of 75,000 farmers each month and may be received by any farmer in the state free of cost if his name and postoffice address is forwarded to the department at Richmond.

RICHMOND—"HUMORESQUE"

There are only a few really great photoplays each season—pictures that grip you and make a lasting impression. "Humoresque" belongs among these select few. It has qualities which raise it high above the average.

It is the story of a lad with a soul for music and the great unselfish mother-love that helped him to the high place he came to occupy. And of the beautiful girl who stood by him in poverty and in riches and in the great crisis of his life saved him from himself.

Rich in the joy and tears of life, "Humoresque" is close to every heart. It will be shown today and tomorrow. It is a Cosmopolitan Production perfectly presented and a Paramount Arteraft Picture. Alma Rubens is the featured player at the Richmond.

FORTUNE AWAITS MISSING MAIDEN

Her Spanish Grandfather and American Uncles Searching for Helen Owen.

WAS TOO FOND OF NIGHT LIFE

Daughter of Roosevelt Rough Rider and "The Rose of Cuba" Escaped From Restraint in Chicago and Cannot Now Be Found.

Chicago.—Somewhere in these United States is a seventeen-year-old miss, a Spanish-American child of romance and adventure, for whom a large fortune is waiting.

Back in Spain an aristocratic old Castilian grandfather is fretting away his last years longing for her, and here in America three wealthy uncles are seeking her to tell her that a fourth uncle has died and left her a great estate.

Helen Owen, the missing heiress, is the daughter of the late Warren D. Owen, a Roosevelt Rough Rider, who won the daughter of Don Esteban Garcio in Cuba in the Spanish-American war. Rough Rider Owen fought a duel for the hand of Senorita Garcio with her proud old father, it is stated by Clyde Owen of Pittsburgh, who is here seeking the girl, and brought her to the United States.

Uncle Leaves Her a Fortune.

Since then both have died and the girl has disappeared, after seventeen years of as romantic a life as her parents lived before her. The father died in April, 1920, at New Bedford, Mass., and since then the girl's uncle, Edward Owen, has died at Boston, leaving his estate to the young woman.

Assisting the Pittsburgh relative in the hunt are Perry Owen of New York and William Owen of Oak Park, Ill., all wealthy.

"After my brother Warren brought his bride, who was known as 'The Rose of Cuba,' back to the States they lived in St. Louis," said Clyde Owen. "Helen was born there. Her mother died a year later of tuberculosis, and Warren and the child wandered over most of the world for many years. Her grandfather in Spain sent agents to this country looking for her.

"Then, when she was fifteen, they settled down in Oak Park, where Warren was a painting contractor. She kept his house and had her freedom, and, inheriting the temperament of her parents, was too fond of that freedom to keep out of mischief. She was fond of cabarets, dances and the movies. So I learned she came before the juvenile authorities here.

In Home for Friendless.

"The girl's father moved east and died, and she returned to Chicago to be sent to the Home for the Friendless because of her wild escapades. She was given to the care of a Mrs. Condley, 4516 Drave avenue. She escaped through a window one night and has never been heard of since.

"My brother, Edward Owen of Boston, has died, leaving his estate to her. Wherever she is, we want her to know that we will protect her from the agents of her grandfather in Spain and that a great house, surrounded by six acres of beautiful estate, and many thousands of dollars are awaiting her."

Clyde Owen, who told this story, is an official of the Pressed Steel Car company, Pittsburgh.

The much-sought girl has changed her name from Owen to Gordon, according to the information available.

FINDS A LABELED TURTLE

Kentucky Farmer Picks Up One Upon Which His Neighbor Carved. Initials Years Ago.

Lenoxburg, Ky.—Forty-four years ago J. T. McClanahan, who at that time owned a farm near here, carved his name on the shell of a small land turtle that he had caught. He then liberated the turtle.

A few days ago Peter Sheppard, who now owns the adjoining farm, caught a turtle, and upon examining it closely learned that it was the same turtle on which McClanahan had carved his initials forty-four years ago.

Recently he found another turtle on which Sheppard's father carved his name, John Sheppard, twenty-eight years ago.

The shells of the turtles had been worn almost smooth, but it still was easy to discern the carving of the names.

Duchess Wins Rain "Bet" of Half Million Francs

Paris.—As a consequence of rain Lloyd's of London lost their latest "weather gamble." They will be called upon to pay the Duchess Decazes, organizer of the great charity Parlowa fete bagatelle, at the Polo club, half a million francs.

The terms of the insurance stated that all expenses would be paid by Lloyd's if the observers stationed on the top of Eiffel tower noted more than two millimeters of rain after eleven o'clock in the morning.

At six o'clock at night the rainfall was officially reported at three and a half millimeters.

In a stubbornly fought and well contested game the Dreadnaughts defeated the strong Metropolitans yesterday by the score of 6 to 1. For six innings Crosby, the visiting pitcher, the veteran Rosie Hayden, broke the ice with his single which tied the game, in the eighth on hits by Alexander, Fyae and Hayden. The D's licked the visitors two to one, securing eight hits to their four. Faye pitched a beautiful game allowing but four hits and would have had a shutout to his credit but for an overthrow to first which allowed the visitors to score their only run of the game. In the absence of "Wop" Deyers, Long covered second with Ludlow on first and Hayden in right and his hitting featured the game. As he came across three times with hits in the pinches. Stevens, being thrown out at the plate on his bingle to right, the first time up. Good teams and good games is the program for the rest of the season as Clarendon will be played next Sunday elimenates them from the championship of Northern Virginia, and if the fans have it righ tthey can catch an eraly train back to Clarendon. Better games, better teams and a winner make the D's favorites in this setcion and if you are a lover of the natoinal pastime you will follow the Dreadnaughts.

St. Paul's Sunday School base ball team makes its initial bow to the base ball fans Wednesday after noon at 5:30 when it plays the team of the M. E. South Sunday School. The team is composed of boys of considerable base ball experience, and who have been trained in the Sunday School at St. Pauls.

Manager Summerfield has gathered together a strong list for registration, composed of such players as George Philips, A. Wood, M. Hicks, J. Greenwood, George Dove, C. Lucas, M. Petty, C. Peverell, A. Sisson, F. Petty, George Newton, H. Sisson, L. Newton, R. Seton, H. Sisson, L. Haydon, J. Haydon, and H. Rolland.

The team cain scarcely be considered as starting in on an equality with the other teams, but the boys have their eyes on the future and will work the remainder of the season to perfect their team work with the season of 1922 in mind.

The team will play eight games this season, two with each of the other teams in the league, and believe they can get a good line on their opponents in that time.

Friends and the Sunday School have contributed liberally to the support of the team and the boys have a complete equipment to begin play with. They will have new suits which will doubtless be the envy of the other teams that have made the remarkable success the Sunday School league has been this season.

GREEK VICTORY BIG BUT NOT YET COMPLETE.

Constantinople, July 25.—The gravity of the Turkish defeat is unquestionable. Losses of men, material, munition factories and railway communications, weaken their whole military position and the right wing at Bilejik and Ismid is in danger of being surrounded.

Unless the Greeks destroy the main Turkish amry, brilliant strategic successes will not enable them to impose peace tterms and demobilize their own troops.

Representative Moore In Tariff Debate.

Among other things in the House tariff debate last week, Representative Moore said:

"As I understand it, not only may the cost of road construction be materially increased by a duty on asphalt but increased by the duties on explosives provided by this bill; by the duty on cement, which the bill provides; and by the duties specified in the bill on structural steel and reinforcing steel. The matter of highway construction and maintenance is one of prime importance. In that work explosives are necessary. The Geological Survey states that the amount of stone annually quarried and crushed for road-building purposes and concrete road structures totals between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 tons, and that involves the use of explosives. It is estimated that approximately 20,000,000 of explosives. It is estimated that approximately 20,000,000 barrels of cement are used in the construction of highways, including streets and bridges, every year. Steel, to the extent of a heavy anual tonnage, enters into the cost of all highway bridge structures. What are the facts as to the employment of asphalt in highway work has already been detailed."
